Norwegian Launches the Only Service from the Bay Area to Rome

OAKLAND (FEBRUARY 6, 2018) – Norwegian, the World's Best Low-Cost Long-Haul Airline and Airline of the Year 2017, today launched its service from Oakland to Rome. The airline now operates six routes to Europe from Oakland International Airport, with its nonstop service to Paris launching on April 10.

“We offer more European routes out of the Bay Area than any other airline and we are excited to be the only airline with a nonstop service to Rome, one of the world’s greatest tourist destinations. We are also pleased to add Paris in just a few months. No other airline makes travel to Europe as affordable as Norwegian for residents of the Bay Area,” said Thomas Ramdahl, Norwegian’s Chief Commercial Officer.

Norwegian is now the only airline to offer year-round, nonstop service from Oakland and California to both Barcelona and Rome. The carrier operates more European routes from California than any other airline. Rome is the 13th European city with nonstop service from the United States in Norwegian’s ever-growing route network.

Flights to Rome are available for sale on Norwegian’s website. Additionally, the website’s low fare calendar displays the lowest available fares to all of Norwegian’s destinations.

Upcoming launches from the U.S. include: New York/Newark to Paris (February 28); Chicago to London (March 25); Austin to London (March 27); Denver to Paris (April 9); Oakland/San Francisco to Paris (April 10); Boston to Paris (May 2); New York/JFK to Amsterdam (May 7); Los Angeles to Milan (June 18); Los Angeles to Madrid (July 16); and New York/JFK to Madrid (July 18).

Passengers on all of Norwegian’s routes are eligible to join Norwegian Reward, the airline’s frequent flyer program and can earn CashPoints every time they fly, stay at a hotel or drive a rental car.
